The Honorable Leverett Saltonstall

Dear Lev:

Reference is made to my letter of 23 December 1959 regarding [redacted] letter to you of 14 December in which he stated that there are Communists in CIA and that [redacted] had been unable to communicate information about this to me.

[redacted] has now been in touch with [redacted] and advised him that I did see [redacted] in December of 1957, at which time he expressed no desire for further appointments with me. [redacted] stated that he has no knowledge of Communists in CIA and had obtained the allegation about [redacted] inability to see me from a private newsletter, the name of which he could not remember and which could not be located in his office. [redacted] was entirely friendly and appreciative of our follow-up on this matter.

Faithfully yours,
